

Instructions:

Thank you for applying to Bwog!

- Please respond to all questions below. There is no maximum or minimum length for responses.
- Email editors@bwog.com with an attached PDF of your application by Friday, September 13, 11:59 pm EST. Email us if you have any questions!
- Have fun!

About Bwog:

- What do you think Bwog is?
- Tell us about one Bwog post you liked, one post you didn't like, and why for both.
- Come up with three sample post ideas (articles, podcasts, etc.) that you would like to see on Bwog. Make sure they're related to Columbia or Barnard!
- Draw Bwog. (We welcome bad drawings!)

About you:

- Classic get-to-know-you: name, pronouns, (intended) major, school, graduation year, anything else you want to include!
- Why do you want to join Bwog?
- You're taking Bwog out on a date! What would you do? Where would you go? There are no limits!

Questions for Staff Writers:

- What aspects of Columbia might you be interested in writing about? How might you want to expand the type of content (articles, videos, audio, etc.) that Bwog produces?
- In which building on or near campus would you most like to spend twelve hours? Explain why.
- In 50 words or less, tell us about your weirdest experience from the last year.
- Staff writers are expected to fulfill 7 "posts" per semester (This could be an article, podcast, illustration, etc.). Is this manageable for your schedule?

Questions on commitment/other student news organizations:

- It is Bwog policy that you cannot simultaneously be a member of Bwog and another student news organization on campus (such as Columbia Daily Spectator, The Blue & White, WKCR News, or The Federalist, etc). You are allowed, however, to write for campus literary magazines and other, non-journalistic organizations. Do you understand that if you are accepted to Bwog and to another publication, you will be expected to only commit to one organization?
